

Alonzo Street Family Reunion

The descendants of Alonzo and Nora Street held their third reunion Saturday evening, July 15, in the Scarlet Room of the Village Inn Restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Don Street hosted the event. The Street family meet every three years in Salem, for a reunion. This year's get-together was the third such meeting.

On the following day, a picnic was enjoyed on the site of the old Street School house near Cedar Grove, on Big Creek. Alonzo and Nora Street had settled there before the Civil War.

Those attending this year's reunion were: James McAhren, Montgomery, Ala., Mildred and Bob Buford, Vinita, Okla.; Don and Lorene Street, Miami, Okla.; Doyle and Doris Doubek, Richfield, Minn.; Marvin and Nancy Chance and mother. Alice, Liberal, Kansas; Herb and Dorothy May Randle, Pratt, Kansas; H. Dale and Lou Doubek and children Debra and Doug, Belleville, Kansas; Van and Ellen Doubek, Pratt, Kansas; Iris Healzer, Atchison, Kansas; Jane and Mitzi Couch, Versailles, Mo.; Jon and Judy Street and children Brian and Jeremy, Prairie Village, Kansas; Gene and Wanda Camden, Moberly, Mo.; Mike Camden and Jean Umerhine, Columbia, Mo.; Teresa Long, Moberly, Mo.; Theo McAhren, Liberal, Kansas; Richard Randle, Pratt, Kansas; Cora Street, Grand Junction, Colorado; Tom and Susan Doyle, Bethel, Conn.; Sung Hei and Jerry Street and their son Chong Hyon, of Seoul, Korea.

The family all look forward to their next reunion in Salem in 1981.
